Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Luis Ibarra-Penuelas (Ibarra-Penuelas) (Filing No. 24). Ibarra-Penuelas seeks an extension of time of twenty-one days in which to file pretrial motions. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Ibarra-Penuelas's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 24) is granted. Ibarra-Penuelas is given until on or before November 18, 2009, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between October 29, 2009 and November 18, 2009, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 29th day of October, 2009.
